Excerpt: . . . let us put increased, which means grew. And Jesus increased in wisdom, etc. What was the name of that little town to which the shepherds came that wonderful night But Jesus was not to stay long so near Jerusalem, for there lived King Herod, who did not want Jesus to come to earth. So Joseph and Mary carried the child Jesus down into Egypt, where he would be safe from harm. After Herods death they came back again to the homeland, but this time they went to live at Nazareth. Mark place and teach name. Use picture and make the place very real. What a pretty town this was on the hills! The white houses stood among fig and olive trees, while near by were beautiful gardens. This may be represented on table by scene made of toy houses and trees. In this town of N there was one home which we should have liked to visit--the home of J. Indicate. Every year he is growing wiser (point to board)--increasing in wisdom. When he was six years old he went to school. Before this his dear mother had taught him verses from Gods holy book (lifting Bible or scroll), and the same stories from the Old Testament that you have been learning. Arent you sure be tried to have good lessons He learned to read and write. He was increasing in w. That was his mind growing. His body was growing too. He loved...
